THE PREMATURE DECAY OF YOUTH. JUST PUBLISHED BY DR. STONE, PHYSICIAN to the Troy Lung and Hygeinic Institute a treatise on the early Decay of American Youth; the vice of Self-Abuse and its direful consequences; Semin Weskuess and other discares of the Sexual Organs to both male and female. The above work has received the highest commenda-

A Word of Solemn Conscientious Advice to those who will Reflect.

It has colemn fact that 109,000 die annually in the United States with consumption, marasmus, or premature decay. There cannot be an effect without an ademandary of the decay. There cannot be an effect without an ademandary of the decay. There cannot be an effect without an ademandary of the decay of quate cause. In view of the awful destruction of inman ite and health, by marasums or premature exhaustion and decay of the nervous system—nervous debility, caused by sexual diseases, such as the vice of Self-Abuse, ferminal Weakness, Spermatorthous, Genorthous, Gleck, bursteen and the second of Impotence, Leucorrhoea, Virub ut private diseases, bolh Lung and Hygelnic Institute have instructed fluir at-lending physicien to give medical advice, gratis, to all patients thus afflicted, male or female, who may apply by letter or personally, with a description of their case, as to a true and reliable means of cure. And the Instiextreme poverty and suffering, for a sum that will only our pensate the cost of medicines.

The most reliable conscientions advice will at all times be given by the physician of the Institution, both to Male and Female, respecting the diseases of the sexual organs. Medicines and treatment will be sent by mail or express to applicants, to all parts of the country, and the Institution will purarantee the success of treatment. The attending physician will be found at the Indilution for consullation, from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. of each day. Sundays, in the forenoon. dilution for consultations of the forencon, day, Sundays, in the forencon,

Teur months passed on and no news came from the young traveler. This relations, and morpharical relative cousin, began to feel measy, and wern already accusing him of neglect, when one and appy day they read in the papers of the total loss of the steamer oil board of which they kneed that Charles had gone. The young Marseillaise was almost mad with grief; and after a long and chargerous sickness the poor girl, dishearmed, seeing before her nothing but a complete blank, resulved to spend the remainder of her life in a convent, to monrn, far from the world, for the nily man whom she had loved. It was in vain her parents tried to dissuade her from that resolution. All their entreaties, their misery, their leaves, the conditions of the parents tried to dissuade her from that resolution. All their entreaties, their misery, their leaves, conditions and market and she soon entered a convent of Marseilles and the contents and Gentlement's Furnishing Goods.
